2007 Child Support Convention: Country Profile - Update

Foreword to the Country Profile

A Contracting State may use this Country Profile to fulfil its obligations to provide information to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law (HCCH) under the Hague Convention of 23 November 2007 on the International Recovery of Child Support and other Forms of Family Maintenance (2007 Convention or Convention) (see Art. 57(2)).

The document is divided into two stages. Stage 1 includes information provided through a series of tick boxes and required under Articles 4(3), 6(3) and 57 of the 2007 Convention and other information that will be necessary for the implementation of the Convention. Stage 2 includes additional information, in narrative form, necessary for the implementation of the Convention and fulfilment of the requirements of Article 57.

~~The Country Profile is a standardised document that will be available to States to complete, view, and update electronically. The purposes of the Country Profile are to describe how each of the Convention obligations will be met and how the laws and procedures concerning maintenance obligations are implemented, as well as to provide information to other Contracting States.~~ The Country Profile is intended to facilitate:

- a) timely compliance with the obligations of the Convention with a minimum of administrative effort;
- b) information exchange between Contracting States;
- c) cost effective translation of the information provided by Contracting States into English, French, Spanish, and other languages as required by Contracting States;
- d) accurate and prompt case processing by well-informed caseworkers;
- e) knowledgeable service to applicants under the Convention;
- f) prompt updates of the information provided.

This Country Profile is based on the final text of the ~~Hague Convention of 23 November 2007 on the International Recovery of Child Support and other Forms of Family Maintenance~~2007 Convention as agreed at the Twenty-First Session of the ~~Hague Conference on Private International Law~~HCCH, ~~to be referred to, for the purposes of this document, as “the Convention”.~~

This Country Profile is designed to reflect an implementation of the 2007 Convention where no declarations or reservations in relation to the compulsory scope of the Convention have been made.¹ If States file declarations to expand the scope of the Convention to other family members, an expanded Country Profile will be available in the near future to provide the necessary information. Declarations and reservations to the Convention can be found on the Hague Conference HCCH website (< www.hcch.net >).

~~The Country Profile is a standardised document that will be available to States to complete, view, and update electronically.~~ States are to prepare the Country Profile to provide information to other States. Where multiple answers to the questions are appropriate, States are encouraged to check tick all the tick boxes that apply. States made up of more than one territorial unit may choose to submit separate Country Profiles for each territorial unit.

States are encouraged to include Internet sites where that will provide additional relevant information. States should not provide an Internet site as a complete answer to any question.

~~The information in this Country Profile is not legal advice and should not be relied upon as a statement of the current law. For information on the current law on any particular issue, individuals should seek their own independent local legal advice.~~

¹ I.e, maintenance obligations arising from a parent-child relationship towards a person under the age of 21 years; recognition and enforcement or enforcement of a decision for spousal support when the application is made with a claim within the scope of sub-paragraph a); and, with the exception of Chapters II and III, to spousal support.

For clarifications on Convention terminology and substantive matters, users are encouraged to consult the Explanatory Report.
